DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE
This house is located on the west side of Maryland Route 62 about 1/4 mile north of Chewsville in Washington County. It is situated on an area of level ground and faces east. The structure is a five-bay, two-story brick dwelling painted red with white trim. A five-bay, two-story brick el extends to the rear. The walls are set on low coursed limestone foundations and display common bonding at all elevations. Flat brick arches are present over openings at the main stories. No other decorative brickwork is associated with the exterior of the house. Window and door openings are spaced evenly in the walls. Windows have narrow framing with two-over-two pane Victorian period sashes. Wide wooden heads are present over the openings at the first story level of the front elevation. The main entrance is located in the center bay of the front elevation. It is framed similarly to the windows with a narrow transom over the door. A one-story porch with a low hipped roof extends across the front elevation. It is supported with square posts with chamfered edges. A double porch along the south elevation of the el is finished with a Victorian period carved balustrade.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The area of significance of this house is its architecture. It is a well maintained example of a post-1850 brick farmhouse which retains the five-bay center-door plan. This Georgian-form door and window arrangement was in use in Cumberland Valley dwellings from the late 18th to the late 19th centuries.

The property is known as the Joseph Remsburg farm, for one of its owners, prosperous farmer of the Chewsville district, who was born in 1853.

For additional historical information on this and other properties in the Chewsville election district, see Howard L. Spessard, 911 View Street, Hagerstown, Md.
